Introduce color sorting by placing the matching-color fruit or veggie and one additional non-matching item in front of each bushel basket. Ask, “Which one matches the color of the label on the basket? Which one does not match?” Ask children to name both colors and place the match inside the basket. Continue with the remaining pieces.