Angelfish
- I live in seas.
- I eat algae, coral, and very small sea animals called plankton.
- I have scaly skin.
- I have fins to help me swim.
- My baby is called a fry.
- I am an angelfish.

Balloon Fish
- I live in seas.
- I have fins to help me swim.
- I eat shellfish.
- My baby is called a fry.
- I am a balloon fish.

Clown Fish
- I live in seas around coral reefs.
- I have fins to help me swim.
- I eat plankton, shellfish, and leftover dead fish.
- I have slimy skin.
- I lay eggs.
- I am a clown fish.

Crab
- I live in seas.
- I have a hard shell that I shed when I grow.
- I have eight legs and two arms with claws.
- I eat other small shellfish.
- I lay eggs.
- I am a crab.
Jellyfish
- I live in seas.
- I have no bones. My body feels soft, like jelly.
- I move by opening and closing my body like an umbrella.
- I eat small animals. I have tentacles to sting them.
- I lay eggs.
- I am a jellyfish.

Dolphin
- I live in seas.
- I have smooth skin and flippers to help me swim.
- I am good at seeing and hearing.
- I have many teeth to eat fish and squid.
- I come to the surface to breathe air through a blowhole on my back.
- My baby is called a calf.

Clam
- I live at the bottom of seas.
- I have a soft body covered by a hard shell.
- I have a “foot” to burrow into the sand.
- I eat very small sea animals called plankton.
- I am a clam.

Eel (Moray)
- I live in seas.
- I have slimy skin.
- I have sharp teeth.
- I eat other fish and shellfish.
- I lay eggs.
- I am an eel.
TRIM CARDS ALONG THE SOLID LINE. FOLD CARDS ON DOTTED LINE AND GLUE STICK THE BACK SIDES TOGETHER.

Seal
- I live in seas.
- I have short, thick fur.
- My flippers help me swim and walk.
- My whiskers help me find fish and squid to eat.
- My baby is called a pup.
- I am a seal.

Octopus
- I live in seas.
- I have tentacles to catch shellfish to eat.
- I can change color and spray fluid to help me hide.
- I have no bones.
- I lay eggs.
- I am an octopus.

Sea Otter
- I live in seas.
- I eat clams, fish, and octopuses.
- I have thick fur to keep me warm.
- I swim, eat, and sleep while floating on my back.
- My baby is called a pup.
- I am a sea otter.

Dugong
- I live in rivers and seas.
- I have skin with bristly hairs like a toothbrush bristle.
- I eat water plants.
- I come to the surface to breathe air.
- My front legs are like paddles to help me swim.
- I am a dugong.
Sea Turtle

- I live in seas.
- I have skin and a hard shell.
- My flippers help me swim.
- I eat seaweed and algae.
- I lay eggs on a beach.
- I am a sea turtle.

Killer Whale

- I live in seas.
- I use my teeth to eat fish and seals.
- I have smooth skin and a layer of fat to keep me warm.
- I have flippers to help me swim fast.
- I come to the surface to breathe air through a blowhole on my back.
- My baby is called a calf.
- I am a killer whale.

Humpback Whale

- I live in seas.
- I have smooth skin and a layer of fat to keep me warm.
- My long flippers help me swim.
- I eat small sea animals called plankton.
- I breathe through a blowhole on my back.
- My baby is called a calf.

Coral

- I live in warm seas.
- I eat very small animals called plankton.
- I stick to the bottom of the sea and build a skeleton.
- I lay eggs or form buds.
- I am coral.
White Shark

- I live in seas.
- I have smooth skin and fins.
- I have many rows of sharp teeth.
- I eat fish, sea lions, and other sharks.
- My baby is called a pup.
- I am a white shark.

Hammerhead Shark

- I live in seas.
- I have a flat head that looks like a hammer.
- My eyes are at the ends of my head.
- I eat fish, sea lions, and other sharks.
- My baby is called a pup.
- I am a hammerhead shark.

Lobster

- I live on the bottom of seas.
- I have a hard shell to protect me.
- I have eyestalks that help me look for food.
- My claws help me eat snails and small fish.
- I lay eggs.
- I am a lobster.

Sea Anemone

- I live in seas.
- I have tentacles around my mouth.
- I eat small sea animals.
- I lay eggs, split in half, or form buds.
- I am a sea anemone.
TRIM CARDS ALONG THE SOLID LINE. FOLD CARDS ON DOTTED LINE AND GLUE STICK THE BACK SIDES TOGETHER.

Young animal lovers will be fascinated by this unique 24-card set. Stunning photographs of animals are accompanied by simple, easy-to-read facts and an illustration comparing the size of the animal to that of a child. Whether you’re using one set of cards or more, you’ll find endless opportunities for classifying, comparing and sorting fun!